

RevAULusion

Public Reporting and Transparency Policy

I. Purpose:

A. RevAULusion believes in transparency and accountability to its constituents and the public by making available information on RevAULusion's governance structure, governance policies and documents, financial condition as reflected in audited financial statements, and major programs.

B. This policy implements Internal Revenue Service requirements regarding public disclosure of REVAULUSION's IRS form 1023 exemption application (Letter of Determination) and annual reporting IRS forms.

II. Information Available to the Public

A. REVAULUSION shall post on its website and make available upon request the following information and documents in a timely manner:

1. Governance Documents, including:

- a. Current officers and directors of REVAULUSION
- b. Articles of Incorporation (upon request)
- c. Bylaws (upon request)
- d. Charters of Standing Committees—Executive Committee, , Finance and Audit Committee
- e. Code of Ethics
- f. Conflict of Interest Policy
- g. Whistleblower Policy
- h. Executive Compensation Policy
- i. Public Reporting and Transparency Policy

2. Financial and IRS documents, including:

- a. IRS Letter of Determination
- b. IRS form 990
- c. Audited financial statements (upon request)

III. Delegation of Authority for Website Management

REVAULUSION delegates to the Executive Director the authority to manage the REVAULUSION website in accordance with this policy and with the further objectives of informing REVAULUSION's membership and the public of REVAULUSION's major activities and programs and providing information that supports REVAULUSION's mission.